Chris Chand - Your Heart EPK

Bio

Characterizing an artist that never sleeps, Chris Chand fulfills that role. His overflow of charisma can be broken down through each masterpiece he passionately constructs, engineered by his vocal instrumentation. Chris Chand is a charming, yet, wholesome individual who seeks longevity in his love for music, as he prevails from the achievements he has previously accomplished. At his current age of 21-years-old, the Canadian-born, singer/songwriter continues to bend-the-boundaries of the Alternative R&B/Pop scene. From collectively captivating the Toronto streets, to rejuvenating a classic sound, the multi-talented instrumentalist has only just tasted the sample of what is to come.

Song Pitch

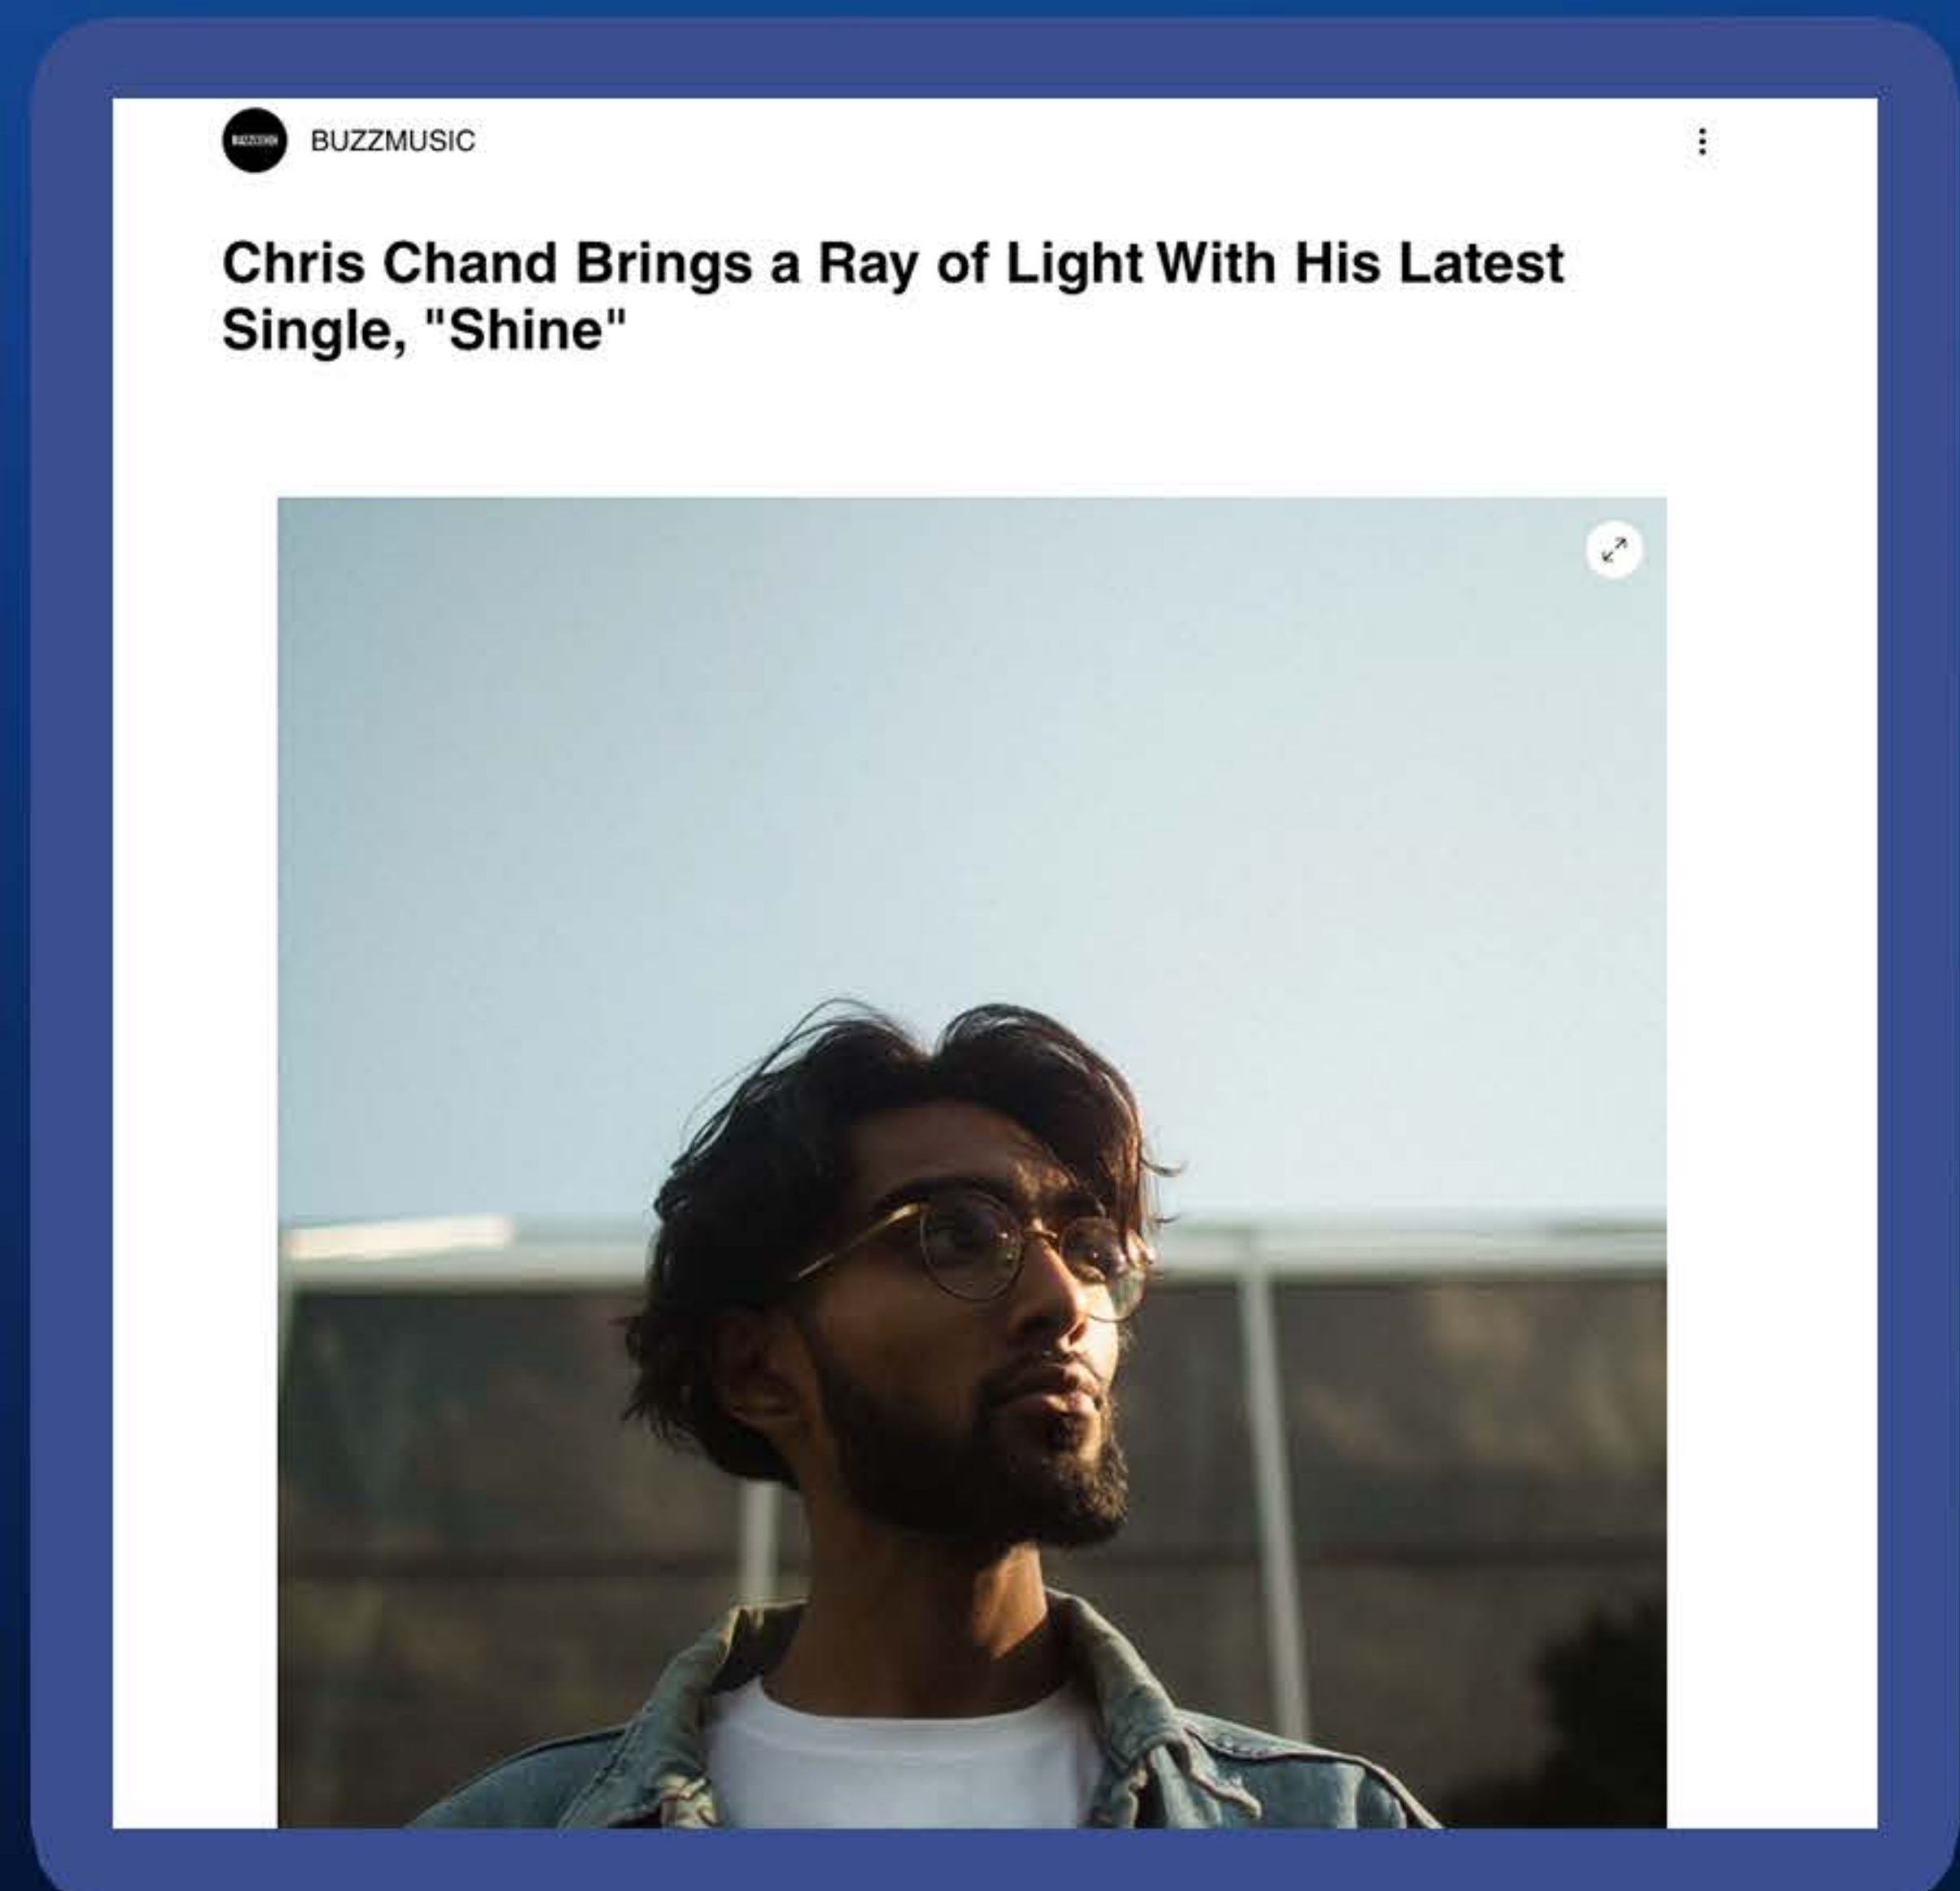

"'Your Heart' is about indecisive love. When it comes to love/relationships, it's hard to tell when you've found the right person. You never know what's going to happen but sometimes you just have to trust your gut, take that chance and see where things go".
